

MU TABOR SCHOOL OF BUSINESS DEANS BUSINESS COUNCIL

Notes from conference call of February 10, 2020 at 2:00PM central time.

DBC members Sheri Eichelberger, Najib Gal, Sheri Eichelberger Tabor Updates –

- x Faculty searches

- f We have signed contracts for all 3 faculty positions!

- o Operations Management–Dr. Alex Vernon

- o Finance–Dr. Michael Osei

- o Accounting–Sam Patel (receiving Doctorate this spring)

- x MU President search

- f 16

th president announced today Dr. James Reynolds, currently at Wilmington College in Ohio

- x Julie Shields, Director of Center for Entrepreneurship, will be leaving Millikin.
Her last day will be March 6, 2020.

- ³/₄ Enrollment & Internship updates Shauna Mays

- x Information was sent with the agenda also attached to the email with minutes.

- x For Spring 2020 Millikin saw an increase in enrollment of five percent for traditional undergraduate students. Millikin also welcomed its largest number of new traditional students for a spring semester since 2014.

- x Shauna's last day at Millikin will be Friday, February 14.

- ³/₄ Team updates

- x Alumni Engagement Sheri Eichelberger, Trevor May, Kevin Stocks

- f Working with Najib on upcoming Tabor Times issue.

f Graduway currently on hold; need to circle back with Alumni & Development office; Najiba will follow up.

f Najiba shared that Doug Shapiro, a previous DBC member, will be engaging MBA students in a consulting project as ~~part of~~ their capstone course. Doug and the Menke family will be the featured alumni for the Tabor Times issue.

f Najiba is working with the Center for Academic & Professional Performance (CAPP) to find a way to fund the implementation of Handshake, a platform that connects students with potential internships & employers. Jamie commented that State Farm uses this platform and has found value in it.

x Career Preparedness Nikki Garry, Jamie Rockhold, Bob Swartz

f Will be following up with RJ & Carrie re: digital badge! 3Á Udö <,, Õ%o£O

Next conference call: Monday, March 9, 2020 at 2:00 PM central time.