onversations with prospective DBC members to join in the fall.
or recommendations if you have any.

- o IWU, Cardinal Stritch both closing, we are recruiting transfer students from both and trying to make it as seamless as possible for them.
- o Millikin is reducing workforce through unfilled positions, natural attrition, planned retirements; prioritizing programs
    - Entrepreneurship major has been eliminated, but still offering the minor & academic certificate, which reach more students outside of Tabor; will still embed entrepreneurial principles in everything we teach.
- o New VP of Enrollment & Strategy – Sarah Kottich; very engaged in data-driven decisions and strategies for future planning
- o Tabor currently has three open faculty lines in Accounting and Marketing – if you know people who might be interested, please send them to https://millikin.edu/about/mission-values/employment
