

Social Science Secondary Education Program
Annual Report, 2013-2014

History 425:

Dr. Mullgardt ran History 425 as an independent three-credit course in the fall of 2013, and will do so again in 2013. He is still contemplating splitting the course into two (as il more students enter the program, and after he determines how this would fit with potential endorsements in political science or psychology.
